4. CSD Software.

a. For your use of CSD Software, CSD hereby grants to you a non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, non-transferrable (except in compliance with this Agreement) license to use the CSD Software during the Term. As between CSD and you, CSD shall exclusively own the CSD Software and shall retain all property, intellectual property, and other rights in and to the CSD Software, including all patent, copyright, trade secret, and moral rights. You have no rights to copy, modify or make derivative works of the CSD Software. The total number of authorized users will not exceed the number agreed upon by the parties. Nothing in this right to access the Patient Solutions Services gives you the right to access any source or object code used to provide the Patient Solutions Services, nor any of the content contained in the Patient Solutions Services, except for such content which is necessary for you to access to use the Patient Solutions Services as permitted by your access credentials.

5. Support Services.

a. Availability. We will provide you with the applicable Support Services described below (i) if you have purchased them, or (ii) if they relate to our warranty obligations during the Service Period (the Initial Warranty Period and thereafter for as long as you have purchased Support Services for the CSD Software or Equipment); provided that you remain current with all amounts owed to CSD.

Regardless of any financing relationship you have with a leasing company, CSD shall be entitled to treat you as the owner and/or licensee of the Products purchased and licensed under this Agreement, and you and CSD shall remain directly and primarily liable to each other under this Agreement, notwithstanding any financing by a leasing company.

b. Requirements. CSD may provide or make available to Customer, (i) a list of hardware and CSD Software systems, and versions thereof, approved by CSD for use with the CSD Software, and/or (ii) technical information describing the technical requirements for the configuration of such systems and related computing or communication hardware and CSD Software to render such systems operable with the Products, including the CSD Sensei Platform and components thereof. d. Site Layout, Electrical, Connectivity, and Network Cabling. If you ask us to deliver and install Equipment, you are solely responsible for providing us with information on site layout, electrical power, multi-office connectivity needs and network cabling specifications prior to delivery. You are solely responsible for ensuring that communication lines, equipment, and services (such as, without limitation, services from Internet service providers) are installed and operational prior to delivery and installation.

e. Integration Restrictions. You understand that integration of CSD Software and hardware from sources other than CSD may not be feasible, and we make no guarantee that such integration can be achieved other than as expressly provided in the CSD documentation. You are responsible for any costs incurred by you because of our or your inability to integrate such other CSD Software and hardware. If you retain us to attempt integration, you agree to pay us for all services rendered in attempting to integrate such other CSD Software and hardware regardless of the ultimate outcome of that effort.

Training will be provided by a CSD trainer or a CSD approved trainer. Training sessions may involve multiple trainers. You agree to pay for scheduled training services if not cancelled at least ten (10) business days in advance of the training date. As actual damages may be difficult to determine, if you cancel training fewer than ten (10) business days prior to training, then we may retain any fees you have paid us as liquidated damages, which is a reasonable estimate of damage. In all cases of training cancellations, you will reimburse us for the cost of any non-refundable travel and/or training related expenses incurred in advance for the express purpose of your training, regardless of the cancellation date. Any additional training beyond that listed in your Agreement will be quoted at our then-current rates and billed separately.

Conversion services do not include network cabling, which should be completed in advance by you.

i. Training Expiration. For training purchased either as a part of a bundle or a separate line item, if the training is not used within nine months of the installation date (in the case of training purchased with new CSD Software or Equipment), or within nine months of the invoice date (in the case of training purchased separate from the CSD Software or Equipment), then you will forfeit the training and the monetary value of the training. No credits, repayments, or extensions will be permitted.

ii. CSD Software-Related Services Expiration. CSD Software installation services, conversion services and customization services purchased either as a part of a bundle or a separate line item must be used within nine months following the Effective Date. Under no circumstances will Carestream Dental accept any return of Installed Equipment more than 90 days after installation or any return of Small Equipment more than 90 days after shipping. Software license fees, training fees, shipping and handling fees, and other service fees are non-refundable. No returns will be accepted without a Return Merchandise Authorization (“RMA”) number issued by Carestream Dental, which will include return instructions that must be followed. The RMA number must be included on the packing slip for returned material(s). Returns must be delivered to Carestream Dental within 10 days after the RMA is issued. Late returns will be refused. All returned products must be in good working order and include all original packing materials and accessories. Carestream Dental will impose a restocking fee equal to 20% of the item purchase price on all returns and deduct that amount from the credit issued to the account. Our right to terminate this Agreement is in addition to all other rights that are available to us. We may also terminate or change this Agreement for any reason, or no reason, at any time during the term of this Agreement effective upon sixty (60) days’ notice to you.

b. Effect of Termination. Upon termination or expiration of this Agreement, you will pay us all amounts you owe to us under this Agreement (including as set forth in Section 5(e)) through the date of termination or expiration. You will return any equipment or unused consumables to us that have been leased, rented or not fully paid for within five days of termination; with regard to CSD Software, you will irrevocably delete and cease using any CSD Software and send a certification of such deletion and cessation to us within five days of termination. If CSD holds any of your data, you will have the right to download or otherwise retrieve your data for sixty (60) days after termination. CSD may charge a fee for transferring this data. Thereafter, CSD may delete or otherwise dispose of your data at its sole discretion without consequence.

- ii. use such information only in connection with the purposes of this Agreement;
- iii. take measures to protect and safeguard the Confidential Information using the same degree of care that the recipient uses to protect and safeguard its own Confidential Information of a similar nature, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care; and
- iv. in no event shall Customer use CSD’s Confidential Information to directly or indirectly compete against CSD or to make, attempt to make, have made, cause to be made, or assist in the making or provision of, any product or service that competes with any CSD Product or Service.

9.1 Disclosure of Information. Through CSD’s performance under this Agreement, Customer may become exposed to, be furnished with, and receive information of CSD comprising CSD’s Confidential Information and/or trade secrets regardless of whether such Confidential Information and trade secrets are provided or disclosed by CSD or by its agents, advisors, representatives, or otherwise. Customer acknowledges that CSD’s Confidential Information and trade secrets represent a substantial investment by CSD. 9.2 Required Disclosures. In the event that Customer receives a request to disclose all or any part of CSD’s Confidential Information under the terms of a subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process, or order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction or by a governmental body, Customer agrees, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to (i) promptly notify CSD of the existence and terms of the request, so that CSD may seek an appropriate protective order and/or waive compliance with the provisions of this Agreement related to such Confidential Information, and (ii) if disclosure of such information is legally required in the opinion of counsel to Customer, Customer and its representatives shall be permitted to make such disclosure without any liability hereunder only after Customer and its representatives have exercised reasonable efforts to obtain an order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to such disclosed Confidential Information.

The obligations in this Nondisclosure and Confidentiality Section will continue after any termination of this Agreement until a Party can no longer legally defend its confidentiality rights to its Confidential Information, and with respect to Confidential Information constituting a trade secret, for so long as such Confidential Information constitutes a trade secret under applicable law.

b. “Intellectual Property Rights” means all rights in Intellectual Property.

10.2 Ownership of Intellectual Property. Subject to the rights granted to Customer hereunder and subject to the other terms and conditions of this Agreement, all Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights of CSD in and to the CSD Sensei Platform and components thereof shall, as between CSD and Customer, be exclusively owned by, and remain the exclusive property of CSD and Customer shall have no other rights therein. Customer acknowledges and agrees that Customer does not own, and hereby disclaims any ownership of the CSD Software and any components thereof, and all Intellectual Property and Intellectual Property Rights related thereto. In the event Customer acquires any Intellectual Property rights during the Term that relate to the CSD Software or to Customer’s access and use of the CSD Software, Customer hereby irrevocably assigns, transfers, conveys and sells such Intellectual Property rights to CSD at no cost to CSD. Upon request, Customer shall cooperate and assist CSD in performing those acts necessary to enable CSD to perfect or maintain its rights to such information, results, discoveries or inventions, including providing CSD with reasonable assistance in CSD’s preparation of applications and other documents relating to the filing, grant, registration or assignment of patents and copyrights and also including the execution of such documents. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall not apply to inventions and discoveries relating to Customer’s services or intellectual property unrelated to the CSD Software.

10.3 Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights.

10.3.1 Infringement Notice. Customer shall promptly notify CSD if Customer knows or has reason to believe that any Intellectual Property Rights licensed hereunder are being infringed or misappropriated by a third party or that such infringement or misappropriation is threatened. Customer shall also provide CSD with reasonable evidence thereof if Customer is aware of or possesses such evidence.

10.3.2 Enforcement. CSD intends to protect the CSD Software against infringement or misappropriation, and to act to cease or eliminate such infringement or misappropriation when, in CSD’s sole judgment, such action may be reasonably necessary, proper, and justified. CSD shall have the sole and exclusive right to initiate and control suits for alleged past, present, and future infringement or misappropriation of CSD’s Intellectual Property or Intellectual Property Rights in the CSD Software and to enter into settlements of such suits. In the event that CSD enters into a suit against an alleged infringer or misappropriating party with respect to an alleged infringement or misappropriation of any of CSD’s Intellectual Property Rights in the CSD Software, CSD shall have the right to keep all proceeds collected in connection with such suit for its sole benefit and enjoyment and Customer agrees to provide assistance and cooperation requested by CSD at the sole expense of CSD.

10.4 Intellectual Property Markings. CSD may mark or identify the components of the CSD Software with notices or legends indicating that the components comprise the Intellectual Property of CSD. Customer shall not, and shall not cause a third party to, remove, obscure, deface, or alter such notices or legends under any circumstances. The taking of any such action by Customer or such third party shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

10.4.1 Intellectual Property Validity. Customer agrees that Customer will not contest, or cause or assist any third party in contesting, the validity of any of the Intellectual Property or Intellectual Property Rights of CSD that are licensed hereunder. In the event that a third party contests the validity of any of the Intellectual Property or Intellectual Property Rights Licensed under this Agreement, CSD shall have no obligation to refund any payments made by Customer to CSD hereunder and Customer shall continue to perform and abide by Customer’s obligations and duties hereunder as if such contest were not underway.

11. Export. Each party shall comply with the export laws, rules and regulations of the United States and other applicable jurisdictions. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) each party represents that it is not named on any U.S. government list of persons or entities prohibited from receiving exports, and (ii) you shall not permit authorized users to access or use the Products or any component thereof, CSD Software or Patient Solutions Services in violation of any U.S. export embargo, prohibition or restriction countries (including Iran, North Korea, Sudan or Syria).

12. Indemnities.

12.1 Indemnification by CSD. Subject to the last two sentences of this section, CSD will defend Customer from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities and expenses (“Losses”) brought against Customer by a third party alleging the Products as provided by CSD infringe the intellectual property rights of the claimant. CSD’s obligations to defend or indemnify will not apply to the extent a claim is based on or arises from (i) Customer’s or a third party’s technology, software, materials, data or business processes; (ii) a combination of the Products with non-CSD products or services; (iii) any use of the Products not in compliance with CSD’s documents or instructions regarding use of the Products, or this Agreement generally; or (iv) repair or modification of the Products other than by CSD. Notwithstanding the above, CSD may choose, at its sole discretion, to enact any of the following as its sole obligation or remedy for any infringement or misappropriation claim, at no additional cost to Customer, with no further obligation or liability by CSD to Customer: (a) modify the Products to avoid infringement or misappropriation; (b) obtain a license that enables Customer to continue using the Products; (c) terminate Customer’s subscriptions for the affected Products and refund Customer any related prepaid fees for the remainder of the subscription term; or (d) return of the Products with a refund to Customer of the adjusted, previously owed value of such Products. THIS SECTION STATES CUSTOMER’S SOLE REMEDY, TO THE EXCLUSION OF ALL OTHER REMEDIES (IN CONTRACT, TORT OR OTHERWISE), AND CSD’S TOTAL LIABILITY REGARDING THE CLAIMS AND LIABILITIES ADDRESSED BY THIS SECTION.
